Preface

All of my ancestors, going back at least to 1590, were German Jews – a 350 year legacy. Of that thirteen generation legacy, three generations were decimated in the Holocaust. In researching my family tree, the magnitude of that personal destruction emerged. How many family members were murdered or lost in that horrible time?

Over 650 family members, including their spouses and children, perished in the Holocaust. Over 1,000 other uncles, aunts and cousins might have been living in Europe in the 1930s. I have thus far found no evidence of their fate.

This is one of a series of reports, each based on the descendants of one to four ancestral couples. It details my findings. For those who perished, detailed source information is presented. For those whose fate is unknown, the known, often sparse, details are included. My intention is to spur further efforts to discover the fate of those who may or may not have survived.

More importantly, I would like to pay tribute to our lost family. Hopefully, future generations will remember them and never forget the Shoah.

This report covers the primary documented families from which the Speier family of Guxhagen, Hessen descended.

This includes the descendants of:

- Salomon Speyer born ca 1660
- Moses Katz born ca 1670
- Joseph Plaut born ca 1590 in Vacha
- Jeremias Katz born ca 1720

It is based on a family tree with close to 6,000 members which is the consolidated work of many, including members of Geni.com and Ancestry.com, individual family members, and especially the work of Mark Gordon, Howard Heilbrunn, Sam Katz, Hans-Peter Klein and Christopher Kuehn. The Plaut Family: Tracing the Legacy by Elizabeth S. Plaut, published by Avotanu, Inc. 2007, was another significant family tree resource.

As research continues, I intend to periodically update this report. I will be happy to act as a clearing house for other researchers so that their information can be included in the whole.

As in all genealogical work, there are errors and omissions. There are examples of information later proved incorrect even in credible resources like Yad Vashem and the Gedenkbuch. Please report any disputed information so that corrections can be incorporated in future editions, or, if a resolution cannot be found, so that the dispute can be noted. I can be reached at dennisaron@comcast.net.

This report includes:

- A list of the 356 victims of the Holocaust developed from research tools identified below. Source footnotes are at the end of this list. Each individual is indicated as follows:
 - Perished in Holocaust: A source reports that the individual died. The date and place of death is usually included.
 - Perished in Holocaust: Suicide: A source reports that the individual committed suicide. The date and place of death is usually included. It is thought that many of these individuals were actually murdered, but reported as suicides.
 - Presumed Perished in Holocaust: A source reports that the individual was deported to one or a sequence of camps but does not include information on their death. The date of death is listed as a range from the date of last transport to 1945.
- A list of the 538 family members whose fate in the Holocaust is unknown. This was assembled by identifying those possibly in Europe in the 1930s and eliminating those whose fate could be determined. Source footnotes are at the end of this list. The information on these individuals is quite limited; any additional facts that may be helpful in determining their fate would be appreciated.
- An index of all family members mentioned in this report appears at the end.

A register of the descendants of these four patriarchs is separately available. It will be provided upon request with the condition that information on any living individuals may not be posted on the Internet and must be kept private.

Below is a table that breaks out the information in this report by ancestor:

	Descendants
Ancestor	Total number	Victims of the Holocaust	Fate in Holocaust Unknown
Moses Katz	1121	119	77
Jeremias Katz	916	37	43
Joseph Plaut	4770	285	423
Salomon Speyer	1768	168	146
Total of Above	8575	609	689
All four combined, eliminating duplicates	5947	356	538
Those who share two or more of the above ancestors	2628	253	151

Internet sites used in researching this document include:

- Gedenkbuch <http://www.bundesarchiv.de/gedenkbuch/directory.html>, The Gedenkbuch was originally a 4 volume list, prepared from Nazi records, of those missing or perished in the Holocaust. It is offered by Das Bundesarchiv, the German national archive. The online version is fully searchable by a variety of facts including name, birth day and/or town, residence town, date of transport or date of death.

- holocaust.cz <http://www.holocaust.cz/en/main>, The database contains names and fates of Jews deported from the Bohemian Lands and of the prisoners of the Terezín (Theresienstadt) ghetto from other European countries.
- The Association for the Study of the History of the Jews in Southern Germany and Adjoining Areas <http://www.alemannia-judaica.de/> This site has substantial information about Jewish communities, synagogues and cemeteries.
- Jews in Nord-Hessen www.jinh.site50.net This site focuses on the Jewish communities of North Hessen and their families and has a substantial number of family trees assembled from original data sources and a wide variety of other Jewish culture research.

- Google www.Google.com No explanation needed. There are many websites covering the Jewish communities of individual towns, which I found by Googling for individuals who were mentioned in these websites. More often than not, I found new information on others in the community as well.

Summary from Howard Heilbrunn, Descendants of Marcus Boley:

Emma Boley (64) lived at Gießener Str 25 in the house that had belonged to her parents.
Her father Joel was a livestock dealer and had died in 1912. Malchen, her mother had died in 1915. Following her parents' death the house was owned by Josef Speyer, who emigrated in 1936.
Emma Boley retained the right to live in the house. The mayor referred to this in a letter dated 25th January: "Concerning the house and plot Werkelstr B 27 of the Jewish livestock dealer Josef Speyer. The family moved to America some years ago. No immediate relatives live here any longer. ...The Jewess Emma Boley, whose parents built the house, continues to live there rent-free and she has the right of free abode". He wrote this because somebody wanted to buy the plot and had turned to the regional governor.³⁸⁵ Emma Boley had to move to Geismarstr 19.
On September 7, a transport with about 1000 people left Kassel for Theresienstadt. The Jews were first assembled in Kassel in the school in the Schillerstr., at the corner of Wörthstraße. The action went by the euphemistic expression "evacuation of Jews to Theresienstadt" or "deportation". At the notification of a change of address, the name Theresienstadt was not to be entered as the new destination, but: "address unknown" or "emigrated".⁵¹⁶ (What a cynicism!) The last three Jewish women from Fritzlar were among the deportees:
Emma Boley (67 years): her train left on September 6 at 7.56a.m from Fritzlar to Kassel.
On September 6, in spite of the curfew, Emma Boley secretly said goodbye to a Christian friend at 4a.m, at the same time giving her a small purse with some coins. She said: "These are for your children. Take them, I don't need them any more!"

I have attached an updated tree for Joel Boley and the email that was sent to me is interesting.

My name is Sylvia Beer Hennessy and I live in Atlanta, Georgia....Henrietta as well as Sophie, Joel, and Sydney Boley all lived in Athens, Georgia, for many years. I was born in Athens and grew up knowing most of the Boley family. I received a forward from Emi Yoshida /ancestry.com about your being Sophie Boley Dornblatt's second cousin and thought that you might be interested in the anecdotal info we have on Emma, Sophie's sister who died in the Holocaust.

Aunt Sophie was my grandmother Henrietta Boley Beer's sister. Several of the Boley descendant cousins now living have had information on Emma Boley, the only sister of Sophie who did not leave Fritzlar, Germany, and unfortunately perished in the Holocaust.

A Lutheran pastor Herr Lohmann has spent the last several years gathering information on the Jews of Fritzlar where the Boley family lived. Myself as well as Harriet Levine (Sophie's granddaughter) and Nina Sydney Boley as well as her brother Bertram have all visited Fritzlar on different occasions, including a stone laying remembrance in front of the Boley home and other homes owned by Jews of Fritzlar.

Most recently, we have been in contact with Almut Poensch-Wolf whose great grandmother was a friend of Emma's and was given a rose bush by Emma in the late 1930's. The family has kept the rose bush alive along with cuttings to honor and remember Emma.

Below are recent posts from Almut Poensch-Wolf Herr Lohmann regarding what is known about Emma's last days in Fritzlar. Hope you find it interesting. I look forward to hearing from you

Dear Sylvia and Harriet!
Emma Boley's rose is flowering just right now.
My sister made the translation of the Lohmann paper for you!
Lots of love!
Almut

Dear Herr Lohmann,
How wonderful to hear from you...and to receive the report on Emma Boley...I will find someone who speaks German to translate it. You are so kind to remember me, our entire Boley family, and the many who were lost in the Holocaust. Your efforts and love on their behalf is inspirational...and I believe evidence of the the kind of faith that Jesus spoke of in Matthew 25.

I hope that both you and Charlotte are well as well as Elizabeth, her family, and Michael.

Dan and I have so many fond memories of our visits with you both in Fritzlar and when you came to Atlanta.

God willing, we will come again to Germany and hopefully get to come to Fritzlar again.

May God bless you and surround you with His amazing love and grace.

With gratitude and love,
Sylvia Hennessy

Sehr geehrte Damen und Herren!
Ihnen danke ich herzlich, dass Sie die Stolperstein-Aktion in Gudensberg vorantreiben und dass ich Ihnen über "jüdisches Leben im Raum Fritzlar" berichten darf. Auf Ihrem Plakat, das ich sehr gelungen finde, haben Sie zum Stolperstein eine Rose abgebildet. Die Rose gab mir die Idee, was ich Ihnen heute Abend erzähle. Ich biete Ihnen drei Kurzporträts und das erste enthält die Geschichte eines Rosenstocks: der "Emma-Boley-Rose".

Thank you very much for your support for the "Stolperstein-Aktion" in Gudensberg and for allowing me to report to you about the "Jewish life in the Fritzlar area". On your poster - which I really like - you added the picture of a rose to the "Stolperstein". This rose inspired me for my talk tonight. I offer you three short portraits and the first one entails the history of a rose: the "Emma-Boley-Rose".

Die Geschichte von Emma-Boley (The history of Emma Boley)
Dazu lade ich Sie zu einem Fantasiespaziergang ein. Wir treffen uns auf dem Fritzlarer Marktplatz am Brunnen. Von dort gehen wir die Gießenerstr. abwärts, wir gehen an der Post vorbei und weiter zum Hotel Kaiserpfalz. Gegenüber der Kaiserpfalz liegt auf der linken Straßenseite die ehemalige Gaststätte "Zur Post". Sie steht jetzt leer. Dies ist das Haus Gießenerstr. 25. Über der Eingangstür steht in Stein gemeißelt die Zahl 55.47. Das ist eine jüdische Jahreszahl, denn die Juden zählen die Jahre von dem errechneten Datum der Schöpfung der Welt ab, während wir die Jahre von der Geburt Christi ab zählen. So bezeichnet die Zahl das Jahr 1787. Glücklicherweise haben die Nazis die Bedeutung dieser Zahl 55.47 nicht erkannt und sie darum an dem Haus unzerstört gelassen.

I want to invite you on an imaginary walk. We meet on the market place in Fritzlar at the well. From there we walk down the Giesserstr., past the post office and on to the Hotel Kaiserpfalz. Opposite the Kaiserpfalz - on the left side of the street - is the former restaurant "Zur Post". It is now empty. This is the Haus Giessenerstr. 25. Above the front door the number 55.47 is carved in stone. This is a Jewish date because Jews count the years from the calculated creation of the world, whereas we count the years starting with the birth of Jesus. Thus the number marks the year 1787. Fortunately the Nazis did not recognize the significance of this number 55.47 and therefore left it undisturbed on the house.

Was war 1787? Sechs Jahre vorher, im Jahr 1781 hat die jüdische Gemeinde

Fritzlar eine Synagoge gebaut, das Haus steht jetzt noch Nikolausstr. 13. Nach außen ist nicht erkennbar, dass dies Haus einmal die jüdische Schule und den Synagogenraum beherbergte. Genauso wenig war das Haus 1781 als Synagoge erkennbar, das wollten die katholischen Fritzlarer nicht zulassen. Aber nun wuchs die Gemeinde, und so baute 1787 Meschulam Boley das große Fachwerkhaus Gießenerstr. 25.

What happened in 1787? Six years earlier, in 1781 the Jewish congregation had built a synagogue - the house is still there at Nikolaustr. 13. It is not recognizable from the outside that this house once housed the Jewish school and the synagogue. Even back then - in 1781, the house could not be recognized as a synagogue from the outside - the catholic people of Fritzlar did not allow it. But now the congregation grew and in 1787 Meschulam Boley built the big half-timbered house Giessenerstr. 25.

Als Meschulam Boley 45 Jahre alt war, bekam er einen Sohn Joel, der 1912 verstarb, und der mit Malchen verheiratet war, die 1915 verstarb. In Fritzlar blieb nur eine Tochter, Emma, geboren 1875. Vor seinem Tod verkaufte Joel Boley das Haus an Familie Speyer mit der Auflage, dass seine 35 jährige Tochter Emma in dem Haus lebenslanges, freies Wohnrecht hat. Aber der neue Hausbesitzer Joseph Speyer aus Züschen und seine Frau emigrierten 1936 in die USA und Emma Boley blieb im Alter von 61 Jahren allein im Haus. Ihre Schwestern lebten in den USA, aber sie fühlte sich wahrscheinlich zu alt, um zu emigrieren.

When Meshulam Boley was 45 years old, his son Joel was born, who died 1912 and was married to Malchen, who died in 1915. There was only one daughter left in Fritzlar - Emma, born 1875. Before he died, Joel Boley sold his house to family Speyer with the stipulation that his 35 year old daughter Emma had the right to live in the house for free as long as she lived. But the new home owner Joseph Speyer from Zueschen and his wife emigrated to the USA in 1936 and 61-year old Emma Boley stayed alone in the house. Her sisters lived in the USA but she probably felt too old to emigrate.

1936 gab es in Fritzlar noch 58 jüdische Personen, das waren 1,35 % der Bevölkerung.

1936 - 58 Jewish people still lived in Fritzlar - 1,35% of the population

1939 waren es nur noch 29 Personen, 0,65 % der Fritzlarer. Im Januar 1939 wollte jemand dies große Haus kaufen. Deswegen wurde Emma Boley, die 64 Jahre in dem Haus gewohnt hatte, gezwungen in die Geismarstr. 19 umzuziehen. Ihr Wohnrecht im Elternhaus wurde missachtet.

1939 - 29 Jewish people lived in Fritzlar - .65% of the population. In January 1939 someone wanted to buy the big house. That's why Emma Boley, who had lived in the the house for 64 years, was forced to move to Geismarstr. 19. Her right to live in the house of her parents was disregarded.

Im Februar 1940 wurde sie schon wieder zum Umzug gezwungen, diesmal in Fraumünsterstr. 2. Damals gab es nur noch 21 Juden in Fritzlar. Ihr Wohnrecht im Elternhaus war zwar dem Bürgermeister bekannt, aber er verfügte gegen das Recht den erneuten Umzug.

In February 1940 she was again forced to move - this time to Fraumuenderstr. 2. At that time there were only 21 Jews left in Fritzlar. Her right to live in the house of her parents was known to the mayor of Fritzlar but he ordered against her given rights another move.

Im Oktober 1941 musste sie schon wieder umziehen, dies Mal in die Martinsgasse 18 zu den jüdischen Schwestern Speier, Amalie war 2 Jahre älter als sie und Sophie 3 Jahre jünger. Zu diesem Zeitpunkt - Oktober 1941 - gab es in Fritzlar nur noch 4 jüdische Personen, nämlich die beiden Schwestern Speier und Emma Boley und Susmann Speier, der noch im Oktober ins Gefängnis nach Kassel kam und von dort nach Sachsenhausen deportiert wurde, wo er umkam.

October 1941 she had to move again - this time to Martinsgasse 18 to the Jewish Speier sisters - Amalie was 2 years older and Sophie three years younger than Emma. At that point - October 1941- there were only 4 Jewish people in Fritzlar; the two Speier sisters and Emma Boley and Susmann Speier, who was sent to prison in Kassel in October and then deported to Sachsenhausen where he died.

1942 waren also nur noch diese drei jüdischen Frauen in Fritzlar. Am 6. September 1942 mussten sie mit dem Zug um 7.56 Uhr von Fritzlar nach Kassel fahren, von dort wurden sie am 7.9. nach Theresienstadt deportiert. Amalie und Sofie Speier überlebten das KZ, Emma Boley dagegen wurde im Alter von 67 Jahren nach Treblinka verbracht und am 29.9. umgebracht. Ein Stolperstein vor dem Elternhaus in der Gießenerstr. erinnert an ihr schreckliches Ende.

1942 - only three Jewish women remained in Fritzlar. On September 6. 1942 they had to take the train at 7:56 from Fritzlar to Kassel from where they were deported to Theresienstadt on July 9. Amalie and Sophie Speier survived the concentration camp, Emmal Boley however was transported to Treblinka at the age of 67 and killed on September 29. A "Stolperstein" in front of the her parents' house in the Giessenerstr. reminds of her horrible death.

Vielleicht fragen Sie, wovon hat Emma Boley gelebt? Eine staatliche Unterstützung gab es für Juden nicht, im Gegenteil, die Juden wurden vom Staat beraubt. Es gab Unterstützung von der jüdischen Wohlfahrt, aber das war wenig und wurde immer weniger. Doch Emma Boley hatte einen Acker und einen Garten, das war ihre Rettung. Jedoch am 16. Juni 1941 musste sie Acker und Garten veräußern. Man beachte es war im Juni, d.h. ehe sie etwas ernten konnte! Im Garten gab es aber nicht nur das nötige Gemüse, sondern auch einen Rosenstock - und damit komme ich auf das Plakat mit der Rose zurück.

Perhaps you ask yourself what Emma Boley lived off - how did she support herself? There was no government support for Jews, on the opposite they were robbed by the state. There was support from the Jewish welfare organization but that was not much and became less and less. But Emma Boley had a piece of land and a garden - that's what saved her. But on June 16 1942, she had to sell the land and garden. Please note - it was in June before she could harvest anything. In her garden were not just the necessary vegetables but also a rose - and that's how I come back to the poster with the rose.

Fast auf den Tag genau bekam ich 68 Jahre nach diesem Zwangsverkauf des Gartens am 6. Juni 2009 folgenden Brief von Frau Almut Wolf aus Wiesbaden. Nearly on the day 68 years after the forced sale of the garden, I received a letter on June 6, 2009 from Almut Wolf in Wiesbaden

Wie im Brief angekündigt, schickte Frau Wolf ein Foto

- ich lasse es rund gehen -

und Frau Wolf besuchte die Nachkommen der Schwestern von Emma Boley, die schon in den 20iger Jahren in die USA ausgewandert waren. Von einem solchen Besuch bekam ich am 11. April dieses Jahres einen Bericht. Eine Großnichte von Emma Boley schrieb an die Urenkelin der Rosenstock-Hüterin:

and Mrs. Wolf visited the descendants of the sisters of Emma Boley, who already emigrated to the USA in the twenties. I received a report from the visit on April 11 of this year. A great niece of Emma Boley wrote to great grand daughter of the keeper of the rose:

"Es war wirklich wunderbar, dass Du uns besucht hast. Unsere Boley-Familie ist dadurch sehr gesegnet worden, dass wir Dich und die Geschichte der Emma-Rose kennen gelernt haben. Wir schulden Dir und Deiner ganzen Familie tiefen Dank, dass Ihr die Emma-Rose und die Erinnerung lebendig erhalten habt. Bitte, gib unseren tiefen Dank an Deine Mutter weiter, die auch Dir einen Ableger geschenkt hat. Vielen Dank für die schönen Fotos der Rose und die Rosen-Seife - welch liebevolle Geste. Ich werde die Fotos an einem besonderen Platz in meiner Wohnung aufstellen, damit mein Herz sich an Emma und an die besonderer Familie erinnert, die Emma so sehr liebt, dass sie die Erinnerung an sie lebendig erhalten und jedes Jahr zum Blühen bringen."

Zurück zu Emma Boley, zum 6. September 1942. Wovon hat Emma Boley gelebt? Das zeigt auch folgende Begebenheit: Am 6. September, dem Tag an dem sie von Fritzlar mit dem Zug nach Kassel zum Abtransport fahren musste, ging sie um 4 Uhr morgens trotz Ausgehverbot heimlich zu einer christlichen Bäckersfrau, die noch heute lebt, in die Backstube, um sich zu verabschieden. Dabei übergab sie die wenigen Münzen, die sie noch im Portemonee hatte, der Bäckersfrau und sagte: "Die sind für Deine Kinder. Nimm sie, ich brauche sie nicht mehr!"
 Back to Emma Boley, back to September 6, 1942. What did Emma Boley live off? That also shows in the following interaction: On September 6, the day that she had to leave Fritzlar to go by train to Kassel to be transported away, she went at four 0'clock in the morning - despite a curfew - secretly to a Christian baker woman, who is still alive today, in the bakery to say good bye. She gave the few coins she had left to the woman and said: "These are for your kids. Take them, I don't need them anymore."

So war sie: sie schenkte Rosen und Münzen, sie schenkte von dem wenige, das sie noch hatte. Tief traurig, aber ohne Hass ging sie in den Tod.
 That's how she was: she gifted away roses and coins - she gave away the little she still had. Deeply saddened but without hate she met her death.

Spangenthal, Harry

Birth: 10 Jan 1891 Kassel, Germany
Father name: Ruben "Rudolf Spangenthal" Spangenthal
Mother name: Röschen "Rosa" Spangenthal
Death: Bet. 11 Dec 1941-1945 Riga Ghetto, Latvia; Presumed Perished in Holocaust^{2, 93}
Person Notes: Harry Spangenthal was confined in the Concentration Camp Dachau on November 17, 1938 (prisoner's number 29540); was released from there on January 17, 1939; and was deported from Düsseldorf to the Riga Getto on December 10, 1941. (Findings of the International Tracing Service, Red Cross; Sep 29, 1998).
See also, Gertrude Schneider, Journey into Terror, according to whom the 12/11/41 transport from Düsseldorf arrived on Dec 14 in Riga: "The trip from Düsseldorf to Riga had been interrupted by a series of untoward incidents. When the deportees had boarded the train, one of them, a man, had attempted to commit suicide, and one woman had made an unsuccessful attempt to escape. The placement of the deportees on the trains had been done in a rather haphazard manner. In some cars there had been as many as sixty persons, while other cars had only thirty passengers. There had been heat in all twenty cars of the train at least at the outset of the journey. After passing through several stations, two of the cars had to be taken out of service because the axles had broken. One railroad agent in Konitz (Chojnice) had less sympathy for the German police accompanying the Jews than for their victims, but the personnel working at the station in Schaulen(Siauliai) turned off all the lights and shut off the heat in the cars in which the Jews were traveling. The official in charge of the transport, Capitain Salitter of the Schutzpolizei, kept a record of the temperatures during the journey and noted how cold it became the nearer they came to Riga. Once in Riga, he was under the impression that Skirotava, the name of the last stop in Riga, was also the name of the getto. He mentioned in his report that the Riga Getto at that time contained 2,500 males and that another 32,5000 had been shot by the Latvians" from Vertraulicher Bericht über die Evakuierung von Juden nach Riga, Transportbegleitung 11.12 - 17.12.1941, Hauptman Salitter (Düsseldorf, 26.12.1941).

A question: Julius's Birthdate is 12 prior to his listed parents' marriage date. I suspect that his mother was Isaac's first wife, Marianne. Dennis Aron

Hans Peter Klein (Sources:
<http://www.gedenkstaette-breitenau.de/rundbrief/RB-28-47.pdf>) explained : Julius Speier is born in 1910. His Mother was Berta Grohs and his father Isaac Speier (but Isaac was married with Marianne Godschmidt)

Marianne and Isaac did'n had children , and so, the couple adopted Julius Speier. Marianne Godschmidt dead in 1921.

In 1922, Isaac Speier married Berta Grohs , but in the same year, Isaac Speier also dead in 08.1922.

Six years later, Berta Grohs married Natan Katz.

Berta Grohs is born in New York . She was 15 years old , as she came to Germany for homework by the family Isaac and Marianne Speier.
