Preface

All of my ancestors, going back at least to 1590, were German Jews – a 350 year legacy. Of that thirteen generation legacy, three generations were decimated in the Holocaust. In researching my family tree, the magnitude of that personal destruction emerged. How many family members were murdered or lost in that horrible time?

Thus far, I have found evidence that over 670 family members, including their spouses and children, perished in the Holocaust. Over 1,100 other uncles, aunts and cousins might have been living in Europe in the 1930s. I have thus far found no evidence of their escape or death.

This is one of a series of reports detailing my findings, each based on the descendants of one to four ancestral couples. For those who perished, detailed source information is presented. For those whose fate is unknown, the information that is known, often sparse, is included. My intention is to spur further efforts to discover the fate of those who may or may not have survived.

More importantly, I would like to pay tribute to our lost family members. Hopefully, future generations will remember them and never forget the Shoah.

This report includes the Baer family of Wiesbaden, Hessen Germany and the Hirsch family of Mandel, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany. Together, they comprise the roughly 1,900 descendants of Isaak and Eva Samuel Gumpel of Wiesbaden. Isaak was born before 1750. These families came together when Isaak's daughter Rosina Baer married Salomon Hirsch in the 1790s.

The Steinhardt and Schoenfeld branches of the family largely avoided the Holocaust though their early emigration to the United States.

- The Steinhardt family of Flonheim joined the family in the 1840-1850s when two Steinhardt brothers, Raphael and Benjamin married two Hirsch sisters Johannette and Eva. Both couples and their families, with few exceptions, moved to the US.
- Similarly, the Schoenfeld family of Stein-Bockenheim joined in the early 1870s when two Schoenfeld siblings, Abraham and Johanna married two Hirsch siblings, Marijana and Isaac II. Abraham and Marijana moved to the US with their children as did most of the children of Isaac II and Johanna.

The source for this report is a family tree that is the consolidated evolving work of many, including members of Geni.com and Ancestry.com, and individual family members. My primary sources/collaborators for these families include:

For the Baer Family:

- James Aronson
- Frank Bartelt of the Paul Lazarus Foundation of Wiesbaden
- Daniel Kester
- Clotilde Wimmer

For the Hirsch Family:

- Walter Klein, for help on the Steinhardt branch
- Sandy Naon, for help on the Schoenfeld branch
- Robert Stern, for help on the Hirsch family
- Karin Vesper-Stumm of Mandel, who produced the foundation Hirsch family tree on which the rest is built
- Judy Weisfield for help on the Schoenfeld branch

As research continues, I intend to periodically update this report.

As in all genealogical work, there are errors and omissions. There are examples of information later proved incorrect even in credible resources like Yad Vashem and the Gedenkbuch. Please report any disputed information so that corrections can be incorporated in future editions, or, if a resolution cannot be found, so that the dispute can be noted. I will be happy to act as a clearing house for other researchers so that their information can be included in the whole. I can be reached at dennisaron@comcast.net.

This report includes:

- A list of the 32 victims of the Holocaust developed from research tools identified below. Source footnotes are at the end of this list.
- A Report of all the locations mentioned in list of victims, including Nazi concentration camps, ghettos and extermination camps, and the individuals associated with them.
- A list of the 131 family members whose fate in the Holocaust is unknown. This was assembled by identifying those likely in Europe in the 1930s and eliminating those whose fate could be determined. Source footnotes are at the end of this list.
- An index of all family members mentioned in this report.

A register of the descendants of Isaak and Eva Samuel Gumpel is separately available. It will be provided upon request with the condition that information on any living individuals may not be posted on the Internet and must be kept private.

Below is a table that breaks out the information in this report by ancestor:

Ancestor	Descendants
	Total number	Victims of the Holocaust	Fate in Holocaust Unknown
Isaak Gumpel	1948	32	131
Jacob of Mandel (Hirsch)	1410	16	50
Solomon Schoenfeld	403	4	3
Joseph Steinhardt	740	2	13

Internet sites used in researching this document include:

- Gedenkbuch <http://www.bundesarchiv.de/gedenkbuch/directory.html>, The Gedenkbuch was originally a 4 volume list, prepared from Nazi records, of those missing or perished in the Holocaust. The online version is fully searchable by a variety of facts including name, birth day and/or town, residence town, date of transport or date of death.
- Yad Vashem <http://db.yadvashem.org/names/search.html?language=en>, This database includes information from the Gedenkbuch and Joods Monument as well as Pages of Testimony by family and researchers giving information on missing and perished individuals
- Joods Monument http://www.joodsmonument.nl/search?q\_mm=&q\_search\_form=person&q\_advanced=1, This database focuses on Netherlands residents who perished or were missing in the Holocaust.

- holocaust.cz <http://www.holocaust.cz/en/main>, The database contains names and fates of Jews deported from the Bohemian Lands and of the prisoners of the Terezín ghetto from other European countries. It also includes images of documents found at the ghetto including death certificates which sometimes include the names of other family members.
- The Kester family web page <http://thekesters.net/Genealogy/Baer.html>. This website contains genealogies for the families of Daniel Kester, the site publisher. Daniel is a Baer family descendant and has posted a wonderful Baer family register.
- <http://www.alemannia-judaica.de/> The Association for the Study of the History of the Jews in Southern Germany and Adjoining Areas. This site has substantial information about Jewish communities, synagogues and cemeteries.
- www.jinh.site50.net This site focuses on the Jewish communities of North Hessen and their families and has a substantial number of family trees assembled from original data sources and a wide variety of other Jewish culture research.
- www.Google.com No explanation needed. There are many websites covering the Jewish communities of individual towns, which I found by Googling for individuals who were mentioned in these websites. More often than not, I found new information on others in the community as well.

My grandmother, Susannah (called Sani all her life) Leib (not Leid) was moved upstairs to a small room in her house. German gentiles moved into the house. She committed suicide by swallowing a cyanide capsule given to her by a family friend, a doctor, that my grandfather regularly used to play cards with. She died the last day of Passover, 1942. I looked up the date on one of those eternal Jewish calendars.

She is buried in the Jewish cemetery in Bad Kreuznach (there since 1672), I visited. Her name is misspelled, as Lieb, instead of Leib. Who was responsible for internment? Unknown.

I believe the following entry from the Gedenkbuch to be Susannah Leib as the death date coincides with the last day of Passover, 1942:

 resident of Berlin

Deportation destination:
 from Berlin
 26th February 1943, Auschwitz, extermination camp

From Clotilde Baer Wimmer:

My grand aunt, Fanny Clara Baer died at age 50 on 4. Sept. 1935 in the Charite. Max remarried on 18. Dec. 1836 in Berlin. His second wife was Robelin(?) Herpe and she was born on 28. Dec. 1899 in Berlin. I doubt that Robelin or Roselin was Jewish and am not too sure how this marriage at this later date took place. The Nuremberg laws were already so well entrenched. The Charite death certificate of my great aunt does not state the cause of death, and I often wonder if this was a suicide. Was this second marriage supposed to confer upon Max some kind of protection? Whatever the kind of marriage it was, Max Striem, was in one of the later transports out of Berlin. Berlin will not release to me any kind of family registry on the Striems. The reason is because I am not a direct descendant. So, I am still hoping that there may be indeed issue from the Baer-Striem union and perhaps these family members were hidden by the surviving spouse in the second marriage. I have been studying this entry for "Rita Striem" in the Yad Vashem entry. <http://db.yadvashem.org/names/nameDetails.html?itemId=3861015&language=en> She was the only Striem in the transport with Max out of Berlin. She could have been his and Great Aunt Clara's daughter. She was only 13 years old and hence, was sent to the gas chambers upon arrival in Auschwitz.

 That was quite a wedding and the honeymoon in Paris was even better. They had very well established relatives in Paris who lavished wonderful attention on them. Ilse writes of her mother's recollection on a certain relative Du Mayer ... who had somehow become part of the French nobility. I wonder if this is a link on the Baer side ....
