Preface

All of my ancestors, going back at least to 1590, were German Jews – a 350 year legacy. Of that thirteen generation legacy, three generations were decimated in the Holocaust. In researching my family tree, the magnitude of that personal destruction emerged. How many family members were murdered or lost in that horrible time?

Thus far, I have found evidence that over 680 family members, including their spouses and children, perished in the Holocaust. Over 1,100 other uncles, aunts and cousins might have been living in Europe in the 1930s. I have thus far found no evidence of their escape or death.

This is one of a series of reports detailing my findings, each based on the descendants of one to four ancestral couples. For those who perished, detailed source information is presented. For those whose fate is unknown, the information that is known, often sparse, is included. My intention is to spur further efforts to discover the fate of those who may or may not have survived.

More importantly, I would like to pay tribute to our lost family members. Hopefully, future generations will remember them and never forget the Shoah.

This report includes the descendants of

- Re'uvén (before 1760-) and his wife who gave birth to the Aron family of Neuwied, Rheinland-Pfalz, Germany.
- Michel Moses (1763-) and his wife who gave birth to the Michel family of Immendorf, Rheinland-Pfalz. The Michel family merged with the Heilbronn family in 1853 when Sara Michel married Jakob Heilbron (1821-1899).
- Hirsch Heilbronn (ca1730-) and his wife who gave birth to the Heilbronn family of Frickhofen, Hessen, Germany. The Heilbronn family merged with the Arons in 1888 when Karoline Katta Heilbron (1854-1940) married Samuel Aron (1856-1917).

The source for this report is a family tree of 450 members of these families that is the consolidated evolving work of many, including members of Geni.com and Ancestry.com, and individual family members.

- Hubert Hecker of Frickhofen provided significant information on the early generations of the Heilbronn family.
- Peter Kleber of the Koblenz city archive provided assistance on the Michel family.

- Ted Tobias provided substantial help on the Michel family and a copy of Der Jüdische Friedhof in Neuwied-Niederbieber (The Jewish Cemetery of Neuwied-Niederbieber) by Naftali Bar-Giora Bamberger which was the source for the early information on the Aron family.

As research continues, I intend to periodically update this report.

As in all genealogical work, there are errors and omissions. There are examples of information later proved incorrect even in credible resources like Yad Vashem and the Gedenkbuch. Please report any disputed information so that corrections can be incorporated in future editions, or, if a resolution cannot be found, so that the dispute can be noted. I will be happy to act as a clearing house for other researchers so that their information can be included in the whole. I can be reached at dennisaron@comcast.net.

This report includes:

- A list of the 28 victims in these families of the Holocaust developed from research tools identified below. It includes known close family members for each victim. Source footnotes are at the end of this list.
- A Report of all the places mentioned in list of victims, including Nazi concentration camps, ghettos and extermination camps.
- A list of the 51 family members whose fate in the Holocaust is unknown and any known close family members. This was assembled by identifying those likely in Europe in the 1930s and eliminating those whose fate could be determined. Source footnotes are at the end of this list.
- A Report of all the places mentioned in the list for those whose fate is unknown.
- An index of all family members mentioned in this report.

Registers of the descendants of each of the three patriarchs are separately available. They will be provided upon request with the condition that information on any living individuals may not be posted on the Internet and must be kept private.

Below is a table that breaks out the information in this report by ancestor. The totals do not add up due to individuals who descended from more than one of these families.

Ancestor	Descendants
	Total number	Victims of the Holocaust	Fate in Holocaust
		Unknown
Re'uvén (Aron Family)	89	1	21
Hirsch Heilbron	242	5	34
Michel Moses Michel Family)	250	25	29

Internet sites used in researching these documents include:

- Gedenkbuch <http://www.bundesarchiv.de/gedenkbuch/directory.html>, The Gedenkbuch was originally a 4 volume list, prepared from Nazi records, of those missing or perished in the Holocaust. The online version is fully searchable by a variety of facts including name, birth day and/or town, residence town, date of transport or date of death.
- Yad Vashem <http://db.yadvashem.org/names/search.html?language=en>, This database includes information from the Gedenkbuch and Joods Monument as well as Pages of Testimony by family and researchers giving information on missing and perished individuals
- Joods Monument
http://www.joodsmonument.nl/search?q_mm=&q_search_form=person&q_advanced=1 This database focuses on Netherlands residents who perished or were missing in the Holocaust.
- holocaust.cz <http://www.holocaust.cz/en/main>, This database contains names and fates of Jews deported from the Bohemian Lands and of the prisoners of the Terezín ghetto from other European countries. It also includes images of documents found at the ghetto including death certificates which sometimes include the names of other family members.
- A Kaminsky Family Genealogy www.kaminsky.nl This is a primary online genealogy resource for the Rosenbusch family of Borken, Hessen and other families connected with the Kaminsky family.
- The Kester family web page <http://thekesters.net/Genealogy/Baer.html>. This website contains genealogies for the families of Daniel Kester, the site publisher. Daniel is a Baer family descendant and has posted a detailed Baer family register.

- The Association for the Study of the History of the Jews in Southern Germany and Adjoining Areas <http://www.alemannia-judaica.de/>. This site has substantial information about Jewish communities, synagogues and cemeteries.
- Jews in North Hessen www.jinh.site50.net. This site focuses on the Jewish communities of North Hessen and their families and has a substantial number of family trees assembled from original data sources and a wide variety of other Jewish culture research.
- Hessian Regional History Information System (LAGIS) <http://www.lagis-hessen.de/> This is a broad Hessian history site with a very helpful section on Jewish Cemeteries.
- www.Google.com No explanation needed. There are many websites covering the Jewish communities of individual towns, which I found by Googling for individuals who were mentioned in these websites. More often than not, I found new information on others in the community as well.

The published reports in this series on the impact of the Holocaust on individual families include the following:

1. The Baer family of Wiesbaden, the Hirsch family of Mandel, the Schoenfeld family of Stein-Bockenheim and the Steinhardt family of Flonheim (32 victims, 131 whose fate is unknown)

7 Heilbron Genealogy by Hubert Hecker.
8 e-mail, Dear Mr. Aron
thank you for your quick answer. To Joseph Lion, he was the son of Hermann Lion and Helena Lichtenstein. In the first generation of Salomon Herz and Amalia Michel there are further children, not only Henriette and Isidor Herz.
The first one was Bernard Herz. He was born 1875 in Würm. 1894 he makes a voluntary for two years as a soldier at the " Rheinisches Infanterie Regiment Nr. 68". Moritz Herz was born 1877. Ludwig Herz was born 1878 and died in the August 1892. Isidor Herz, your number 1.2. was born 1880 and died 1910. The next one is Henriette Herz, your number 1.1.. The last one of the brothers and sisters , I could find, was Sophia Herz.
She was born 1884 and married 1911 Albert Elkan, son of Benjamin Elkan und Karolina Rubens.
If you know something about the descendants of Bernard, Moritz, Ludwig, Isidor and Sophie Herz, please let me know it.
It is also of interest to hear more about Amalia Michel's family from Immendorf near Koblenz. If you could give me some information about that, it would be fine.
Best regards,
Dr. H.J.Paulißen, Personal Correspondence; privately held by Hermann-Josef Paulißen, 52441 Linnich, Germany.
